

Spring, 2004

NEWSLETTER

AS CLOSE TO DUKE AS POSSIBLE

The enormous silver linden tree attracts your attention as you approach the most visited site in The Woodlawn Cemetery. When the leaves unfurl in the spring it is a light green, the color of a tropical chameleon. It turns sunshine yellow in October, and in the dead of winter the tree is a forty-foot maze of branches and twigs. The beautiful silver linden is the reason Duke Ellington purchased the lot.

continued on page 4...